

Observing Certificates

A challenge in observing is to find objects on an observing list and to record those accomplishments.

The RASC runs various programs and many start with easier ones and then move on to more challenging ones.

<https://www.rasc.ca/certificate-programs>

Other astronomy organizations also run observer certificate programs. Ask a local club.